Tony Baez Advocacy Award

Nomination Criteria

The Tony Baez Advocacy Award nominee is recognized for his/her successful efforts in the promotion of one or more of the following: education, employment, health, community welfare, volunteerism, arts, and the improvement in the quality of life for children, senior citizens, people with disabilities, and/or underrepresented racial/ethnic groups.

The ideal candidate will have distinguished him/herself, for several years, in the promotion of at least one of the following altruistic endeavors:

- ◆ Advocacy for educational opportunities for children to foster their individual learning potential; and/or the rights of children to grow up in a nurturing, protective, and stimulating environment.
- ◆ Leadership in the promotion of adult literacy, self-sufficiency, and other endeavors (e.g., medical research, food donation, volunteerism, service provision, etc.).
- ◆ Contribution of ideas or economical resources for enrichment of the arts or quality of life in the community.
- ◆ Promotion of humanitarian causes that enable challenged individuals to overcome social barriers (such as promotion of accessibility for people with disabilities to public offices), and/or working toward overcoming barriers that inhibit a life with dignity.
- ◆ Promotion of democratic principles, social justice, and independent living.
- ◆ Advocacy role in the promotion of fair employment opportunities at all levels.
- ◆ Involvement in philanthropic contributions to improve human conditions.

Please note that previous winners, current district personnel, and current heads of community-based and faith-based organizations do not qualify for this award. School district personnel are eligible for this award after retirement.
